

I. Three of many modern calls to forsake and break American idolatry:

Idols for Destruction by Herbert Schlossberg

*Come Out of Her, My People by Paul Shirk (not C. K. Koster)

*Concerned Christians (www.concernedchristians.com is not this group)

A. Some Foundations of American Idolatry

1. Natural Law of western post-Enlightenment, not European
2. American Scripture: secular documents are deemed sacred
3. New world pursuit of political/social/economic liberty/freedom
4. Calvinist design for freedom (see A. Mervyn Davies)
5. Dominionist mandate sourced to post-millennial Theonomy
6. Economic theory: free market is biblical system
7. Supersessionism: American Church is the new Israel
8. Amillennialism: Body of Christ is the kingdom of God

B. Some Expressions of American Idolatry

1. From: the prior king's state church To: people's forming church state
2. Christian nationalism, aka Christian imperialism
3. Reconstructionist/KingdomNow Theology
4. Militancy is divine mandate, e.g. Shepherding/Latter Rain/NAR
5. America: the New Israel, aka British Israelism and/or Mormonism
6. Political activism: every man's duty as evidence of their patriot(ism)
7. Ecumenist goal: global peace brokers for the Prince of Peace

*Regarding CJ Koster's, Come Out of Her My People, "Koster wrote a book called "Come out of her my people" which is heavily promoted within HR*. In Koster's book, it was stated that all things that Christians believe originated from paganism, including the words Lord, God, Jesus, etc. He did not believe that Jesus was divine, thereby denying His Deity, and therefore denying Him as the Christ. Mr. Koster also taught that the Name of Jesus was the same as zeus, which many HR associates also claim, and are also just as wrong. Koster is the one known translator for the ISR -The Scriptures--a 'bible' used by many within HR. If the same doctrine is found within both books--what are the odds that readers who proclaim them as good---also agree with Koster's theology?" <http://www.seekgod.ca/forum/showthread.php?tid=20>, accessed 15 Aug 14

 The leading mouthpiece for the movement spanned by this theology is the bi-weekly World Magazine, Marvin Olasky, Editor-in-chief, replacing the earlier The Presbyterian Journal

* HR is false "Hebrew Roots" movement, aka, "sacred name" —YHVH is only sacred name
